KOVAR Aids Virginians

In 1971 The Knights of Columbus in the Commonwealth of Virginia sought a means to accomplish the charitable goals of the order throughout Virginia. The result was the formation of a 501(C) (3) corporation dedicated to providing financial support to organizations which support fellow Virginians with intellectual disabilities, regardless of race, creed or ethnic background. The organization was chartered as KOVAR. The primary fund-raising activity for KOVAR, became solicitation of contributions at public facilities by the individual KOC Councils and their families throughout Virginia. A Summer Prayer

Long warm days...
The pace of life slows...
A time for picnics and rest in the shade...
Lord,
help me to rest awhile in the cooling shade of your presence.
Slow down my restless heart and fill me with gentle compassion for all your people.
Amen.

CEASA Chat

"New" There is wide debate on the underlying causes of the sexual abuse crisis in our Holy Catholic Church. Blame has been attributed to homosexual priests, lack of women in the priesthood, and celibacy, among others. Several studies have failed to identify a single cause. However, these studies make it clear that much of the blame can be put on Clericalism, something Pope Francis describes as "the gravest of sins." Priests who put themselves on a pedestal or are put there by parishioners, often feel empowered and entitled to do whatever they choose to do. That feeling of entitlement is aided by the church hierarchy seeking to protect the institution at all costs. Moreover, the lack of transparency and holding priests and bishops accountable for this abuse adds to the crisis. Some things we all need to think and pray about.
