Memorable Moments in Diocesan History

To be published each week of the 200th anniversary liturgical year

by Chene Heady

Wales Tyrrell, an African American Catholic convert and public school teacher, was brought before the Charlottesville school board in February 1887 to face charges of misconduct. The charges: "being a Catholic" and permitting "a Catholic priest" to speak "in his school room." When Tyrrell defended himself on the grounds of freedom of religion, the chairman of the school board replied that in Charlottesville Catholicism "is not regarded as [a] religion." Tyrrell would eventually found a Catholic school for African American in Keswick, Virginia.

Call-To-Action Committee

The Call-To-Action Committee (CTAC) is continuing to meet monthly despite the COVID-19 pandemic. We are conducting business through conference calls. The CTAC met on April 22, 2020 and had a very productive meeting. Recently, we completed the OLP action plan to prevent child sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, and volunteer lay persons in the Catholic Church. Completion of the action plan signaled the accomplishment of the CTAC mission, however there remains a significant challenge ahead. The plan has 10 action items that require the attention of the parish. Last month the OLP Parish Council extended an invitation to the committee to remain active as a parish ministry in order to oversee the implementation of the action plan and to ensure OLP is in compliance with the Safe Environment regulation issued by the Diocese of Richmond. The committee will answer to the parish council and will be represented on the council. The CTAC is in the process of formulating a new mission statement and naming convention to account for these tasks.

Sunday Masses Continue online

You can access our Sunday mass by going to <http://olpcatholicchurch.org/> videos until further notice. We hope to be able to upgrade and live stream soon.

Fr. Jim to be Away

In Rhode Island they are scheduled to lift the quarantine of assisted living residences on May 18. That means Fr. Jim can visit with his dad and take him to a seacoast resort. To that end, Fr. Jim will be in Rhode Island visiting his family from June 22 to July 2

Fr. Dan Bain at OLP

Fr. Dan Bain will be substituting for Fr. Jim on Sunday, June 28, during the time Fr. Jim is away in Rhode Island.

Our Lady of Peace Is Reopening!

Our Lady of Peace plans to reopen officially on Sunday, May 24. The governor's new coronavirus guidelines and the bishop's new directives allow us to reopen and again conduct public masses—for which we rejoice. To stay safe while we celebrate mass, we will strictly adhere to all health guidance provided by the state of Virginia and the Diocese of Richmond.

Attending Mass during COVID-19, in Three Simple Steps:

Fr. Jim will be sending the parish the rather lengthy—but necessary—coronavirus guidelines that the diocese has mandated. However, the basic things the average parishioner needs to know can be summed up clearly and briefly as follows: Until the COVID-19 crisis is over, you should come to mass only if you do not fall into a vulnerable population and no one in your family is sick (if you don't meet those conditions, you should watch mass on-line at home). If you are able to come to mass, just follow these three simple steps:

1. Wear a mask (homemade is fine). You will lift or remove the mask only when receiving communion. If you do not have a mask, an usher will provide you with one.
2. Maintain social distancing. Keep six feet away from anyone who does not belong to your family. Wave, rather than hugging or shaking hands; this includes the Sign of Peace.
3. Listen to your usher. The ushers understand all the complexities of the governor's safety regulations and are our principal means of carrying them out. So during the coronavirus crisis, you should defer to your ushers the same way you would at a wedding. Just as at a wedding, you will be ushered to an assigned seat when you come in and you will be ushered out when you leave (do not leave until then). If for the next few months we can all pretend that we are at a wedding, we can all gather while still staying safe.
