Memorable Moments in Diocesan History

To be published each week of the 200th anniversary liturgical year

by Chene Heady

The K.K.K.'s anti-Catholic campaign even included the charge that the Knights of Columbus were a terrorist conspiracy. They asserted that Fourth-Degree Knights were required to take an oath vowing to "extirpate" "all heretics, Protestants, and Masons [. . .] from the face of the whole earth," to "hang, burn, waste, boil, flay, strangle, and bury alive" all heretics. Just for fun, you could ask your friends and family members in the K of C if this sounds like their experience in the organization (of course, I am kidding). But such lies were believed in 1920s Virginia.

Cleaning Committee Volunteers Wanted

It's exciting that we have been able to resume mass at Our Lady of Peace. You may be unaware that one condition of our reopening is that we have to disinfect the pews both before and after mass. We are in need of volunteers to help perform this crucial work on a rotating basis. It only takes 20-30 minutes each time and you would be asked to do it less than once a month. Plus, you can do your job with the satisfaction of knowing that everything that happens at mass is possible only because of your work. If you are interested in signing up for the Cleaning Committee, please email Bonnie Toth at: bonnie3871@gmail.com

Attending Mass during COVID-19, in Three Simple Steps:

Fr. Jim will be sending the parish the rather lengthy—but necessary—coronavirus guidelines that the diocese has mandated. However, the basic things the average parishioner needs to know can be summed up clearly and briefly as follows: Until the COVID-19 crisis is over, you should come to mass only if you do not fall into a vulnerable population and no one in your family is sick (if you don't meet those conditions, you should watch mass on-line at home). If you are able to come to mass, just follow these three simple steps:

1. Wear a mask (homemade is fine). You will lift or remove the mask only when receiving communion. If you do not have a mask, an usher will provide you with one.
2. Maintain social distancing. Keep six feet away from anyone who does not belong to your family. Wave, rather than hugging or shaking hands; this includes the Sign of Peace.
3. Listen to your usher. The ushers understand all the complexities of the governor's safety regulations and are our principal means of carrying them out. So during the coronavirus crisis, you should defer to your ushers the same way you would at a wedding. Just as at a wedding, you will be ushered to an assigned seat when you come in and you will be ushered out when you leave (do not leave until then). If for the next few months we can all pretend that we are at a wedding, we can all gather while still staying safe.
