VIRTUS Protecting God's Children

The Diocese of Richmond uses the VIRTUS program to help protect children. VIRTUS training is required for all church employees and volunteers who work with children, young people, or vulnerable people in our parish. This training is good even if you don't work with children, but want to be involved in their protection. We are in the process of scheduling a VIRTUS training session here at OLP this Fall. This is an approximate 2-hour session consisting of watching and discussing relevant videos. We will schedule this training for early evening on a weeknight. Anyone interested in going through this very important training should contact Scott West, scott.g.west@gmail.com, (804) 715-2342. Come join us, YOU just might make a difference.

CEASA Chat

Diocesan Safe Environment Regulation. The Diocese of Richmond has recently published a revised Safe Environment Regulation dated April 2021. This document addresses the protection of children and vulnerable adults through ministry helping to ensure the diocese and all parishes are in full compliance with the Charter for the Protection of Children (aka the "Dallas Charter"). Reading this regulation can help individual Catholics, as well as parishes, to understand what we all can and should do to ensure our children are protected from sexual abuse. This regulation is available on Our Lady of Peace website under the CEASA/Safe environment tab or on the Diocese of Richmond website under Child Protection/Safe Environment Policies. Blessings from your CEASA.
