Registering Children for Religious Education

It's early summer, but we are already busy ordering materials for our Fall 2022-Spring 2023 Religious Education courses. If you have a child or grandchild whom you would like to add to (or remove from) our Religious Education program, please write Chene Heady at headycr@longwood.edu and let him know so that we can be sure to order the right amount of materials. If your children or grandchildren attended Religious Education last year and will again be attending in the fall, no e-mail is necessary.

Come Let us Adore Him

Come and spend time in Eucharistic Adoration in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Our Lady of Peace will be offering this special oppor-

On Today's Cover

On the cover is the Medieval Russian Icon, The Trinity, by Andrei Rublev. The subject is the Old Testament story in which Abraham receives three visitors as he camps by the oak of Mamre. Rublev puts the three gold-winged figures around a white table on which a golden chalice-like bowl contains a roasted lamb. The artist has given us many symbols in the icon. For example, The first angel is the first person of the Trinity - God the Father; the second, middle angel is God the Son; the third angel is God the Holy Spirit. All three angels have staves in their hand as a symbol of their divine power. The most important symbol, however, is his composition. The painting is composed in a circle around the table, focusing the viewers' attention on the chalice-bowl at the center—meant to remind us of an altar at Communion.
