Parish Notices and Announcements

Have you.....

Have you heard that our Parish Pastoral Council is saying "farewell" to three members who have completed their current term on our council? We want to shout out a big "thank you" to Carolyn Conner, Chene Heady and Sheila Seaquist for all their hard word and dedication to the council. Our new members will be looking to you for advice as they begin their terms. We know you will also continue to serve our parish in your ministries with the same dedication.

Our Parish Pastoral Council will welcome four new members who will be seated at the meeting on November 15th following 7 pm mass. The new members are: Robert Berry, Kelsey Brown, Kathy Ford and Beth Jarrett. Thank you for saying "yes" to serve on the council!

The Parish Pastoral Council meetings are open meetings and all are welcome to attend. These meetings are usually scheduled every other month on the second Tuesday. However, because our parish has been designated an official voting place, this month's meeting is postponed until November 15.

Fluvanna Correctional Center for Women Christmas Gift Ministry 2022

Today is the deadline for your donations of hygiene items, stationery/pencils and cards. The bulk of the donations already received were delivered yesterday to Effort Baptist Church in Palmyra. Please be assured that any donations received today will get to them as well. On behalf of "Graceinside" - Virginia's Prison Chaplain Service, thank you for your generous donations! Matthew 25: "When was I in prison and you visited me?" (See Eileen Brennen, Alice Doepppe or Bonnie Toth if you have any questions.)

Simbang Gabi 2022 Catholic Diocese of Richmond

The Office of Asian Ministry is currently working with Filipino priests and leaders throughout our diocese in preparation for Simbang 2022. The Simbang Gabi kickoff mass will be held at Holy Cross Catholic Church on Thursday, December 15. Bishop Knestout will be celebrating the mass. The purpose is to continue support and accompaniment of the Filipino communities from the Eastern Shore all the way to the borders of Tennessee and walk together toward God as a family. There will be more information in future editions of The Catholic Virginian.
