A PASTORAL MOMENT WITH FR. JIM

The following is a poem was offered in honor of our late Charles William Haney and read at his Mass of Resurrection:

*When I die, give what's left of me away to children and old men that wait to die.
And if you need to cry, cry for your brother walking the street beside you.*

And when you need me, put your arms around anyone and give them what you need to give to me.

*I want to leave you something,
something better than words or sounds.*

*Look for me in the people I've known or loved,
And if you cannot give me away,
at least let me live in your eye and not on your mind.*

*You can love me most by letting hands touch hands,
by letting bodies touch bodies,
and by letting go of children that need to be free.*

Love doesn't die, people do.

So, when all that's left of me is love give me away.

I'll see you at home in the earth.
